

SPECIAL $20 TICKETS!

"The kind of TOTALLY DEMENTED, UNFORGETTABLE, OVER-THE-TOP COMEDY that forces people to think."

— San Francisco Chronicle

Ann Randolph is a "GENIUS."

— Mel Brooks

LOVELAND

by Ann Randolph
directed by Joshua Townshend-Zellner

BEGINS MARCH 18

"YOU'LL LAUGH. YOU'LL CRY."

— San Francisco Chronicle

Critically-acclaimed writer/performer Ann Randolph brings hilarity and humanity to the role of Frannie Potts, an irreverent oddball trapped on a plane as she travels to Ohio for her mother's funeral. Accompanied by a cast of oddball characters, all portrayed by Randolph, we witness the tragedy, beauty and humor that unite us all in grief.

BUY TICKETS

OR CALL 202-488-3300
Promo Code: LOVE20

the mead center
for american theater